ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Rome, 18th.

The influence which the Italian Ambassador, Count Corti, exercised at the Conference in Constantinople is very favourably remarked here and is expected to materially promote the establishing of the Italian colonies in Africa.

Palermo, 19th.

A cyclone of extraordinary violence has burst over this district. Killed and injured are numerous and material damages are immense.

Vienna, 19th.

Latest advices from Sophia state that the Bulgarian government, convinced of the impossibility of opposing the terminatory decision of the Great Powers, has suspended both armaments and mobilization of troops.

Paris, 19th

The final elections took place yesterday. The results are 21 Conservatives and 208 Republicans. The final elections in the colonies are not yet known. The new Chamber will probably count 200 members on the right and 384 on the left, which shews a considerable preponderance on the Republican side.

Berlin, 19th.

A circular note of the Russian Government has been received proposing a conference of the Great Powers, to be held in St. Petersburg, and to revise the Berlin Treaty and to settle the Eastern question once and for ever.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Constantinople, 17th—The Ambassadors have sent in a note to the Porte, stating that every facility must be offered to the European Powers to allow an opinion to be formed respecting the Roumelian question. They likewise advise the Sultan to maintain a peaceable attitude, but not to hesitate in sending troops to the frontiers to establish order. A strong detachment of troops has been sent to Nizo. An encounter with the Servian forces is imminent.

Belgrade, 17th—Servia has protested against the resolution of the Conference on the Roumelian question. Military operations against Bulgaria have begun.

London, 17th—The Servian forces have crossed the Bulgarian frontier, and are marching in the direction of Sophia. King Milan commands these forces, which are now near the Dragoman Pass.

Bombay, 17th—The Ameer of Afghanistan has rejected the proposals of Russia, and will maintain friendly relations with England.

Athens, 17th—It is said that Prince Alexander will be named Prince of Bulgaria and Governor of Roumelia, Turkey being allowed to occupy the Balkans.

Madrid, 17th—King Alfonso presided over a Cabinet Council to-day. The Minister of Foreign Affairs read the instructions sent to the Spanish Ambassadors in Berlin and Rome, with reference to the negotiations for the settlement of the Carolinas question.

Livorna, 17th—The police barracks have been blown up by the explosion of an infernal machine which had been placed in a hidden part of the building. Fortunately no loss of life occurred.

Paris, 16th—M. Brisson's partisans have spread the report that M. Grévy will stand for re-election.

Rosario, 19th—The inscription did not pass off very quietly yesterday; some disagreeables incident occurred. Swords were drawn but nobody was hurt.

Dr Galvez is expected to-morrow. Col. Iriondo has left for Santa Fé.

The weather is fresh and agreeable.

Montevideo, 19th—A new organ supporting the candidature to the Presidency of Gomensoro has appeared.

The decree appears to-day degrading Col. Rodriguez for not having presented himself. It is stated that Col. Montero will send in his resignation.

The Bank question, it is said, is settled, and a telegram of a satisfactory nature has been received from Cerruti, who is at present in London.

In political circles nothing of any importance.

THE CAMPANA FETE.

On Sunday morning the special train with Dr Costa, Procurador General, the Archbishop, and a large number of friends left the Central station for Campana, and after a pleasant and quick run out, arrived at the destination to find the whole place inside out to receive them. Don Luis Costa, brother of the Attorney General and co-Lord of the manor, stood on the platform at the railway station to welcome us, and Mr Burns, who is the same as Lord Mayor of the place, had all his workshops decorated with flags, and his fine new dwelling house on the top of the hill looked like Kilkenny Castle over-hanging the Nore. Not for many years have we assisted at a more enjoyable excursion. The new church is built on the crest of a hill, about ½ a mile from the station, and as the crowd of guests was too much for all the coaches in the town, we walked up with Don J A Fernandez, Don Manuel Doltz, Don Luis Chapeaurouge, and Don S. Casares, but we had to pick our steps as the previous night's rain had drenched the town.

Few of our readers are perhaps familiar with the interesting ceremony of blessing a new church. The bell was first taken down from the belfry to be blessed, and it was a long and difficult job to put it up afterwards in its place. The Archbishop assisted by Dr Terrero, of Caballito, the parish priest of the Capilla, Dr J F Garcia, and some other clergymen, went round and round the outside of the Church, blessing the walls, doors, windows, foundations, etc., followed by a long procession of Campana and city ladies, who although very pious were not able to keep up with the responses. Next, His Grace entered the temple to bless it, but previous to so doing all the furniture chairs, carpets, etc., had to be brought out, as the church had to be stripped of everything mundane before the blessing is given. Round and round the little church we all went, following the Archbishop who sprinkled the place with holy water and read the prayers for the occasion. We were much edified at the piety of our Bolsa friends, who with pious hands helped to spread the carpet, get in the chairs etc. When the ceremony concluded, D. Manuel Doltz, and D. Juan Antonio Fernandez, were conspicuous in their efforts to help the Archbishop and parish priest to arrange the flowers, light the candles etc. High Mass began at about 1 o'clock. Dr Costa, Padrino, and Madame Luis Costa, Madrina, knelt in front of the grand altar. A military brass band, which the Procurador brought out from town, played beautifully outside the church door, whilst in the aisle was an excellent choir. In fact, all the arrangements were admirable and the only regret is that the church is too small. It can accommodate about 250, and for a fast growing and rising place like Campana, the church should certainly be double its present size. Dr. Terrero sang High Mass, and after the first Gospel the Archbishop ascended the pulpit and preached in his own remarkably impressive style a most beautiful sermon. Dwelling on the natural beauties of the place, its noble river and captivating landscape, harmonizing with the beauty of the Christian Religion, and its consolation to man.

The sermon lasted for about a quarter of an hour, and the little church was so densely packed that a woman fainted during the sermon, and had to be carried out. High Mass was concluded at two o'clock, and then about 250 of the guests started off for Dr. Costa's mansion on the bluff overlooking the river, where a hot breakfast served up in the style of the Café de Paris awaited us. As may be imagined we were all very hungry; but there were seats and covers for all. The tables extended from the spacious dining room to the colossal corridors that overlooked the town, river and port. Nothing could be more charming than the view from this corridor, the islands, forming the Delta of the Parana, stretching out as far as the eye could reach. The tall poplars that skirt the town seemed like shrubs from the height, whilst the white sails of the schooners in the various bends of the Parana lent additional charm to the captivating scene. Thirty years have now elapsed since the Messrs. Costa established themselves at Campana. The first year of their occupation they killed 16 tigers on the main-land, and year in year out since then they have been ploughing up and improving the place. The town of Campana dates from about 1874, when Don Luis Costa sold some sites to an Italian for $60,000%, which seemed so exorbitant a price that but for Don Manuel Doltz, who happened to be at Mr. Costa's at the time, Mr. Costa would not have asked one half that price. The Italian, however, made a good purchase, has made a fortune in the town, and the property which he bought for 60,000% is worth 500,000 to-day. We heard many such stories about Campana whilst at breakfast The flowery breeze from the river reinvigorated us all, and when the champagne began to flow, dozens were on their legs to address the goddess of the feast. Joy and mirth and gaiety so much prevailed that there was a species of indiscriminate toasting going on at various points of the table. At last, however, the Procurador General, who sat away up at the head of the table, alongside the Archbishop, rose, and in measured tone and words drank the health of His Grace the Archbishop amidst the greatest applause. The mirthful ball was again set in motion by Mr. Mulhall rising and proposing the health of the Attorney-General of the Republic, Dr. D. Eduardo Costa, which was drunk amidst the most uproarious applause. Mr. Raymond, standing at the window of the corridor, inhaling the balsam-flowing breath of the gardens on the slopes, drank to the health of the Minister of Education of 1874 (Dr. Costa), and the cheers and applause re-echoed through the very rose bushes on the opposite river-bank. To perfect the elysian influences of the feast, Dr..... rose and in perfumed phrases drank to the Houris that graced the bewitching scene. The whole company rose and cheered to the echo the ladies; speech followed speech, and the blissful vision was interrupted by the shrill whistle of the special train; we hurried to the station leaving most of the guests to follow in the late train, and we return our most expressive thanks to Dr. Costa and his brother for granting us the privilege of joining such a thrice happy party.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

THE GRAND NATIONAL.

Over two thousand people attended Sunday's meeting, and owing to Saturday having been such a wet day, many parties stayed away who would otherwise have been present.

The ladies, in bewitching costumes, filled every available box on the Stand, and at no former meeting have we seen youth and beauty mustered so strong as on Sunday. President Roca, Col. Bosch, Dr. Juarez Celman, and a great many of the "oi polloi" were present, and their many carriages on the other side of the railings strongly reminded us of Fairie House and Punchestown.

The race of the year, the Grand National, has come and gone, and "good blood" carried the day once more. Well we remember the day when the Stud Buenos Ayres bought up the flower of the Phœnix breed. At the time every one said that the prices were fabulous and the animals would never pay their cost; but the Stud knew well what it was doing, and every animal, except perhaps Sweetheart, has more than ten times over paid for itself. They are speedy and strong, and have distinguished themselves in every race where speed and bottom were required. Surplice scored his second win in gallant style, and was followed home by Escoces and Coronel, the latter with Radcliffe up. But for being cannoned, indeed, he would have rendered a much better account of himself; and his backers felt their hopes run high when they saw him come up the straight overhauling the leaders every stride. His third was a meritorious performance in a field of 26, although his position was due more to splendid riding than anything else. Beausoleil never flattered his backers for a moment, and the much-fancied Luther showed up badly. Taking the race altogether, there is no doubt the best horse won, and we shall expect to see him verify his running next Sunday in the match with La Primavera.

Bonnie Bee showed stamina in taking off the Velocidad and Ilusion Stakes, especially with such horses as La Perla and Dichosa behind her. Mivoisin had a neck-and-neck fight with Hebreo to secure the Fortaleza Stakes, but Versicolore was a foregone conclusion for the last event. Favourites took off two events, but the day was rather disastrous for their backers as a rule.

A good brass band gave us some excellent music, and not a single complaint did we hear about either Sport or the restaurant. The railway arrangements were all that could be desired.

The following is the programme:—

1st Race.

PREMIO EMULACION.

At the fall of the flag they all went away in a lump, Bonnie Bee taking the lead when about 200 yards out. Coming into the straight she had a clear lead of two lengths, which she held to the post, winning her race hands down. Leonor a length behind Dichosa.

Sport gave $11.24

Betting—6 to 1 agst Escoces, 10 to 1 agst Beausoleil, 12 to 1 agst Surplice, and from 20 to 40 to 1 agst the others.

On the second trial they all got away to a splendid start, the Studs Buenos Ayres and Palermo showing well in the van. In the straight on the first round they were all together, Coronel being amongst the first. Passing the Stand he was leading, but being steadied, dropped back to about eighth place. Coming round to the starting-post, the Stud Buenos Ayres was leading, all the others being well up. When the distance was reached, Surplice lead the lot by a length, Escoces being second, and Coronel, who had worked his way through his horses, was visibly gaining ground when Salvato cannoned with him. Passing the Stand, Surplice had the race won, beating Escoces by a length, Coronel a length behind him. Beausoleil and Luther came in amongst the last.

Sport gave $30.18.

4th Race.

PREMIO ILUSION.

For three-year-old mestiza colts and fillies Weight, 57 kilos; winners, 4 kilos extra. second-placers, 2. Distance, 1750 metres; Prize, $500. Entrance, $50.

Also ran—Fulton and Anzoletto.

Betting—Even on La Perla, 3 to 1 agst Iris, 5 to 1 agst Bonnie Bee, and 10 to 1 agst the others.

La Perla was first away, but was immediately pulled in. Fulton with Iris in close attendance taking the lead, with Bonnie Bee and Anzoletto whipping them in. Facing the Stand La Perla was leading again, but before she reached the distance Bonnie Bee was on even terms, and coming up the straight walked away from her, winning her second race hands down. Iris a good third.

Sport gave $13.20.

5th Race.

PREMIO FORTALEZA.

Free Handicap for all horses. Distance, 3,500 metres. Prize, $500. Entrance, $50 m/n.

A P Jacquemin's Mivoisin, 135 lbs, Le petit Caporal Mureille 1
Stud E-speranzo's Hebreo, 1'0 lbs.... 2
Stud Buenos Aires' Souvenir, 130 lbs.. 3
Also ran—Atrevido, Pincheira, Sweetheart, and Rowena.

Betting—2 to 1 agst Mivoisin and Atrevido, 3 to 1 agst Souvenir, and 6 to 1 agst the others.

Rowena was quickest on her legs and took them away at a fair speed. Facing the Stand Sweetheart was in first place, Rowena second, Atrevido third, Mivoisin fourth, Souvenir and Pincheira behind him, and Hebreo whipping in. This order was maintained for nearly a round, when Sweetheart fell back beaten, Souvenir and Mivosin running into second and third places. Here Hebreo, who was about six lengths behind, began to pull up and before coming to the distance had run through all his horses except Mivosin who was leading. Facing the Stand Hebreo ran even with the French horse, and a splendid ding-dong finish resulted in favor of Mivosin by a neck. Mivoisin was ridden "a la mode anglaise."

Sport gave 6.24.

PREMIO CONSTANCIA.

Free Handicap for four years old horses. Distance 1750 meters. Prize 500 $m/n Entrance 50.

A P Jacquemin's Versicolore, 135 lbs, Idus-Verte Allure..... 1
G Kemmis's Dichosa, 130 lbs..... 2
G Kemmis's Consuelo, 123 lbs..... 3

Betting 2 to 1 on Versicolore against the field.

Consuelo made play for Dichosa at a slow speed, Versicolore playing a waiting game. Facing the Stand Versicolore came away and beat her horses before reaching the distance, passing the Stand in a canter. Sport gave 2.33.

As will be seen the programme was one of the best we have had yet, and all the arrangements were without a flaw, for which we beg to offer to the Jockey Club a vote of thanks on the part of the public. The rider of Salvato was suspended for two years for foul play in the grand National Race.

GENERAL OSBORNE.

(From the Tribuna Nacional)

General Thomas O. Osborne, who has faithfully represented the United States in this Republic for the last 12 years, will shortly leave our shores.

During his 12 years' residence in this country, he did not, as he himself remarked, meet with many difficulties in the accomplishment of his duties and the cultivation of the fostering of relations between the both countries. In this task he was aided to a considerable extent by the harmony in the moral and material interests which link us to the American Union, and also by his own genial, upright and noble character.

General Osborne has had occasion to witness many of our domestic and international troubles and difficulties, and he has even displayed the keenest interest in all that was in any way connected with our welfare.

We all know the attitude he assumed in our recent civil dissensions, we all appreciate his efforts to restore peace and union in the Argentine family. He has lived to see authority and National unity triumph

General Osborne's attitude in the Limits Question with Chile is not less fresh in the memory of all Argentines; but for his timely intervention in conjunction with that of the American Minister in Chile, we know not what issue the question might have had. His benevolent conduct drew forth the recognition of Government, and special mention was made to this effect in the protocol of the same date of the Treaty. We shall not mention all other numerous marks of esteem and appreciation for the talents of this able diplomatist.

On retiring to-day from our Republic after so many signal services, after gaining the well-doserved esteem of natives and foreigners, General Osborne will, no doubt, take with him to his country the grateful and agreeable impressions of his stay amongst us. With pleasure he will cast a retrospective glance some day on the many good works and services with which his name is identified.

We wish this worth and steemed representative of the United States every happiness and success.

LONDON LETTER.

THE DEATH-WARRANT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

September 18th.

An alarming heading this. It refers to Mr. Gladstone's manifesto and the Liberal party. In my letter of this morning I alluded to the anticipation of the early appearance of Mr. Gladstone's programme. Lo! it appears in the fifth edition of the evening papers. I have read it over with dismay and bitterness of feeling. I send you the thing whole, with all its verbosity, platitudes, drivel and senility. Poor Mr. Gladstone is morally and politically no more. He has joined Jumbo and the majority. Come, my Lord Salisbury and your Tory knights: you are welcome. William Ewart Gladstone lives only in the past. His failing senses neither feel, nor hear, nor see the throb of England's heart. He has united the egoism of dotage to the natural egoism of his character. His manifesto is a long, dreary, verbose document, half-personal apology, half-recrimination of his adversaries, written in a vulgarly partisan spirit and redolent of officialism and of that poisonous atmosphere of the House of Commons, in which he has lived and breathed for half a century. He seems to have no conception of the modern tone of political thought in England. One might think his programme was a studied deception; a shifty display of moderate views, not to alarm the less advanced of his party. To think that, would be to prove we do not know the man. As in religion, he is at heart an evangelical — his evangelicalism tempered by culture and the love of refinement and upper-crust associates and associations—so in politics, he is at heart a Tory; his Toryism tempered by vanity and ambition, and the influence of a resentful and unforgiving nature.

Were there now in the Tory ranks a rival of the calibre of a Beaconsfield, Mr. Gladstone would have written to us in a different strain. His letter is addressed to the electors of Midlothian. If I am not much mistaken, the Scots will disown him; or, if they elect him, it will be for the sake of "auld lang syne." They may pity the old man in his study at Hawarden, fighting his battles over again to himself, whilst he is addressing a new generation bent on the solution of burning questions of the day. The Scots see not nations, but great races, preparing for the struggle for mastery; and dear Mr. Gladstone moons to them about the Treaty of Berlin and the "covenant with Montenegro." He might as well talk to them of the pragmatic sanction. The word "covenant" with Mr. Gladstone is like the blessed word Mesopotamia; it is scriptural and comforting to the old man.

The Scots are bent upon disestablishment, and they fret at being shut out from mountain, heather and stream, which not only made them a hardy and brave people, but an imaginative people, and Mr. Gladstone, like a mere Hicks-Beach, will talk to them about "further discussion," and "facilities of land transfer," and the "abolition of entail," the twaddle of five and twenty and thirty years ago.

Were there a dash of the true statesman in Mr. Gladstone he would, under existing circumstances, have restrained his verbosity and egoism, and in a few solemn sentences he might have committed himself to no opinion either in favor of "property" or of "birth," or of any of his own superstitions, and have left the path of reform open to his friends. As it is, he has closed it; and it is scarcely an exaggeration to speak of his driveling manifesto as the electioneering "death warrant" of the Liberal party as the official party of progress. Lord Salisbury, Lord Randolph, even that mediocrity, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, people will say, have promised as much as this; then let them have a turn. Supported by Mr. Gladstone, Lord Hartington and the Whigs, they can form a strong party and a strong Government. The more advanced Liberals must bide their time. Anything would be better than the return to power of Mr. Gladstone and his motley crew, with their sermons, prayers, insidious promises, disunion and scuttlings—not from Egypt or Majuba, but from the frowns of dukelings and of "society."

Let us go to Jumbo. "It seems that the managers of Barnum's show were placing 31 elephants on a railway train at St. Thomas, Ontario, on Tuesday night, for removal to the next town. All the beasts had been loaded except Jumbo and Tom Thumb, who were walking along the track to their coaches when a goods train came along behind them. The driver whistled and put on the brake, but the line being on a down grade, he was unable to stop the train. The elephants', keeper, noticing the danger, made Jumbo run, meanwhile trying to get him to step aside from the track. The cowcatcher of the locomotive, however, caught Tom Thumb, broke his left hind-leg, and threw him over into a ditch alongside the rails, which were on an embankment. The locomotive then ran into Jumbo. His body stopped the train and threw the locomotive and two cars off the track. He was struck on the hind legs by the cowcatcher, and, with a loud roar of pain, fell. The locomotive passed along his back, inflicting terrible cuts and bruises. The elephant, with the wrecked train, was pushed along for some distance. He lived for about 15 minutes, and lay quietly expiring while efforts were made to haul him from under the wreck. Large cables were attached to him, 100 men pulling them, while an additional force pushed him with bars, planks, and levers from behind. After half an hour's labour they got his body out, working by the light of flaming torches. His keeper (Scott), who had accompanied him from London, was greatly affected, and lay on the corpse weeping. It is understood (says a correspondent) that Jumbo's skeleton may eventually go to the Smithsonian Institution at Washington. The stuffed skin, or so much as escapes the pilfering of relic hunters, may go to Tuft's College. But, for the present, the lifeless form of the elephant will continue to accompany the circus. Barnum thinking that Jumbo will prove more profitable now that he is dead than when he was living."

I am indebted for this account to the Times; and from the same paper I take the following telegram in reference to the victory of the American yacht:—

"The general opinion regarding yesterday's contest is that it was the best contested yacht race ever sailed in American waters, that the Puritan was not sailed with as good judgment as the Genesta, but that she developed qualities amazing to yachtsmen who have seen her in rough water and a lumpy sea.

The Genesta's crew cheered the Puritan after the race, and their cheers were heartily returned.

The result was received with great joy in Boston, to which city the Puritan belongs. Crowds thronged the streets, cheering and shouting as the bulletins were posted. The Genesta is expected to sail to-morrow in the race for the Commodore's Cup."

"Melton", as you will see, won easily the St. Leger; and when I tell you that the police, either of their own intelligent will or by the promptings of the Home Secretary (Sir Richard Cross) are beginning to persecute the Socialists in the streets, which may be followed up by an attack on the Socialist Press, and that some wicked persons painted out the name "Iole" on the bow and stern of the Salvationist mission-ship lying at Plymouth or somewhere and put in "Eliza Armstrong", I have exhausted my paragraphs for to-day, with the exception of this rather important one from "Cross and Stock Prospects" in the Times of this morning. The article says: "It may be of interest to home breeders to know that the New Zealand Inspector considers the frozen meat trade to have now reached its maximum, though during the year ended March 31st, 491,026 carcases of mutton were sent to Europe, against 247,772 in the previous year, and there are now 13,988,520 sheep in New Zealand, which is an increase of 772,191 on the return of the previous year."

As you will know, the increase of imports of frozen meat from the River Plate has very much exceeded that from New Zealand.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

The next General Assembly is called for the 3rd of May next. The elections will take place on the 15th of January.

The Pall Mall Gazette falls into an error in attributing the depreciation of our currency to the issue of hypothecary notes by the Credit Foncier banks. These notes are not, and never have been, in circulation, but are bought and sold on the Exchange in the same manner as shares, debentures, etc.

A meeting of publicans was held at the editorial rooms of the Gazeta de Tarde on the 26th ult. for the purpose of completing the organization initiated at a preceding meeting. The following provisional directory was chosen: Quintino Bocayuva, Aristides Lobo, Jose do Patrocinio, Pedro Ferreira Vianna, Magalhaes Castro, Esteves Junior and Ubaldino do Amaral.

It gives us the greatest pleasure to note that the minister of empire has decided to restrain the feverish activity of the municipal council in changing the names of streets. Even the letter carriers had failed to keep up with the changes. If now the minister would restore some of the old names, such as Direita, Pescadores, S. Clement, etc., a decided benefit will be conferred upon the city.

A large number of vagabonds and disorderly characters were arrested in a cheap lodging house in Rua do General Caldwell on the night of the 28th ult. If now the police authorities would put these fellows at work on street repairs, or some public service of that character, they will do much toward preventing their return to begging and stealing as soon as they are set at liberty.

According to the complaints of the liberals, the Cotegipe ministry is engaged in making a "clean sweep" of the old office-holders. Two thousand police officials, says a Minas contemporary, were dismissed in less than 15 days, besides a large number from other public departments. It looks as though the prime minister is clearing the decks for the coming elections in January.

The government has declared void the privilege granted to Morris N. Kohn by the municipal council for the transport and sale of milk, fruit, vegetable, fish, etc., in carts of his invention, on the ground that the council has no authority to make any such contract.

At the races on the 27th at the Jockey Club, a pool on a race won by a horse called Fanfarron produced 2,383$500 for each 10$!

Second Lt. Severiano Antonio de Castilho, of the Brazilian navy, has invented a new mitrailleuse which it is claimed compares very favorably with the Nordenfeldt gun.

On Sunday, the 27th ult., and in a church too, an officer of the army had his pocket picked of 25$ in cash, some lottery tickets, etc. What can religious beliefs be coming to?

By order of the minister of finance the grand lottery which should have been drawn on the 28th ult., has been transferred to the 12th November next. What a sell to the holders of tickets!

It is very satisfactory to learn, by telegraph, that the Portugase press is making favorable comments upon the Saraiva-Cotegipe emancipation law. With such an endorsement, the country is safe.

A committee, under the patronage of the Emperor and the Comte d'Eu and presided over by Barao de Teffé, has been formed to collect 15,000$ to build a new flying machine for Sr. Julio Cesar.

AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND

A Blue-book has just been issued containing the report of the Registrar-General (Dr. Grimshaw) on the agricultural statistics of Ireland for the year 1884. A review of the exhaustive tables forming the body of the return shows that the area of land in Ireland under crops in 1884, compared with 1883, exhibits a decrease of 63,957 acres—94,660 acres being in tillage, while there is an increase of 30,703 acres in meadow and clover. There is an increase of 761 acres under woods and plantations, and of 154,429 acres under grass. There is a decrease of 1,183 acres under fallow and 90,050 under bog, waste' water, &c. The crops in 1884, compared with the previous year, show a total decrease in cereals of 79,072 acres, wheat having decreased by 26,850 acres, oats by 33,460, and barley by 16,230 acres. In green crops there is a total decrease of 8,870 acres, potatoes having decreased by 7,515 acres. Of the extent under crop in 1884, 84·4 per cent., or over four-fifths, were under three crops—oats, 27·7; potatoes, 16·4; and meadow and clover, 40·3 The number of separate holdings was 564,254, being 2,471 less than in the previous year. The holdings which increased in number were—those "not exceeding one acre," by 767; "above 50 and not exceeding 100 acres," by 307; "above 100 and not exceeding 200 acres," by 209; and "above 500 acres," by 34. The holdings which decreased in number were—those "above one and not exceeding five acres," by 1,711; "above five and not exceeding 15 acres," by 1,481; and "above 200 and not exceeding 500 acres," by 11. The number of occupiers of land was 520,724, being 2,228 less than in the previous year. There has been a decrease in each province. Comparing the total produce of the crops in 1884 with 1883, the produce returns for this year are not of a favourable character. In green crops potatoes show the large decrease in yield of 411,154 tons, every crop, except wheat, barley and pease, showing a decreased average produce per statute acre. As regards live stock, the total number of horses in Ireland at the period of enumeration was 534,797, being an increase of 565; cattle showed a total increase of 15,836. and sheep of 25,901 while pigs had decreased by 41,814 or 3·2 per cent on the previous year. The poultry in Ireland at the time of enumeration would represent a total value of £1,023,365.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Congress yesterday settled the custom House question. The duties and valuations, and 15 per cent additional all remain the same, and the Minister of Hacienda had no intention of abolishing the 15 per cent and collecting the duties at the gold market price of the day.

Messrs Taylor, Shaw and Casares were enveloped in friends yesterday and congratulated on their great luck at the races on Sunday. We give in another column a report of the day's sport.

Hurrah for the Rosario water-works! To-day the s.s Ilios is expected in Montevideo with the first consignment of pipes for these works, and a second consignment per Garrick is expected in a few days afterwards; we congratulate our Rosario friends on having at last found a man able to carry out these great works. Mr. Charles Downey is the contracting Engineer, and no better or more competent party could take charge of the works which will be inaugurated on 3rd or 4th of November. We wonder who will be "Padrino" and trust our esteemed friend W. P. will send us a full report of the fête.

Captain Voyer, a distinguished pianist, has arrived and will soon favor the public with a few concerts. We promise him full houses, as we are all very fond of the piano in Buenos Ayres, and we believe there are more pianos in the River Plate, than in any other country of equal population.

Colonel Rivadavia is now commander of the Rio Negro flotilla; he leaves for Patagones in the Pomona on 1st. prox. We have no more intelligent officer in the Argentine navy than Colonel Rivadavia—grandson of the great Rivadavia.

There is rather a flutter in Mendoza owing to a proposal to let the used water from the exhibition Baths flow into the Tagmar Canal, which supplies the town with water.

General Pat. Escobar is said to be the coming man for the next Presidential term in Paraguay.

More races next Sunday. We'll again bet that it won't rain. Always follow up your luck when you win, except in Lotteries.

What ineffable bosh! A colleague says that the new issue of National Bank notes will serve for the capital, and the old one for the Interior. By what wonderful stroke of genius are the two issues to be kept revolving in different orbits.

The races came off on Sunday in the most exemplary manner. All the swells in town, from the President of the Republic downwards were there, and there were also a sprinkling of ladies. We made a lot of money on our bet it would n't rain; but not a copper on the races.

In spite of all the palavers last week between Colonel Bosch and the parish politicians, the inscription on Sunday went within mesurable distance of two or three bloody rows. In Piedad parish some shots were fired; the police drew their swords and things looked ugly for a moment, but evidently cooled down. In Soccorro parish there was another strong protest drawn up against the conduct of the Juez. In San Juan Evangelista there was also a ruction. In fact there was a very strong touch of "the good old times" about Sunday's inscription.

The cable lies awfully sometimes. "Portugal has seized some French possessions in the Gulf of Guinea." How very likely?

The Tribuna Nacional had a very complimentary leader on General Osborne on Sunday. People and papers of all classes, creeds and convictions unite to do the jovial "militaire" farewell honours. He is a man, take him for all and all, we n'er shall look upon his like again in the Diplomatic Bus. We publish the article in another column.

The death of Mr. Diehl has cast a gloom over society. He was most highly and deservedly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him; and this was amply proved by the large attendance at the funeral yesterday. He had suffered from atrophy of the heart for a long time. We had a short conversation with him on Friday, and although death was in his face, we did not think the end so near. Peace to the ashes of a good man. He was many years ago in business in this city; his firm was Diehl Fernan & Co.'s; afterwards he was a barraquero for many years in Montevideo, and, finally, he filled the respectable post of Gerente of the Nacional Bank, which post he held to his death.

Dr Pellegrini is the man of the day. Everybody is remarking how much the drop of John Bright's family blood shows itself. He had scarcely landed from England when he was slashing about him in Congress, with two portfolios on his hands, toppling his foes right and left, as if it were a pleasure to him. Then he pokes up the President of the Provincial Bank about the market, and keeps his eye on a lot of things. Finally they say he's going to run for the Presidency.

A morning colleague calls the Express Agency a "grave abuso"!!! and congratulates the repugnant crew of 'changadores' of all colours on the mole on the fact of the Rentas Office and Interior Department trying to knock this useful institution on the head. We can hardly believe that this is true, and pause for some information.

An enterprising gentleman named Olden, has imported a lot of wax figures, and is going to start something in the Madame Tussaud line. We suppose everything is o. K.

We warmly congratulate our colleague La Prensa on its 16th birthday. Its high-toned independence and impartiality, and the talent and knowledge with which all great subjects are treated in its columns make our highly esteemed contemporary an honour and glory for the Argentine Press. May it live a thousand years.

There has been another electioneering scuffle in Santiago del Estero, but no patriots killed, so far as we know.

The Bitter Cry of the Outcast: West End has been heard, owing to some further capers of our extravagant Lord Mare, who has got another hobby-horse to ride, and is going to knock down the Retiro Barracks and make a Plaza, or waterfall, or something on the site. A Plaza Once resident writes that nothing is done for that neighbourhood, while his Lordship spends millions on the North end of the city. It's of no use talking to his Lordship. When he is in heaven the West and South ends will have a chance, but not till then.

There is some mild fun in some of the papers at the expense of Mr Pre-Raphael Hernandez, who wants to have all the new maps of the province drawn with the South at the top!! The string of reasons he gives for wanting to turn the world upside down is most ludicrous, and will rather astonish the Royal Geographical Society. Somebody will be tampering with the polar Star and the compass next.

We have to thank a kind subscriber for a copy of the Melrose Journal, printed at Melrose, Mass, U.S. It makes us think of steam ploughs. Henly colonists Lincolnshire Farmers, ',et hoc genus omne."

Electric Bitters are the newest thing out. They are not made in the country, at least as yet.

The police are kept so busy at electioneering that the public must look out for themselves. During the month of September $15,141 m/n were stolen in the city, and the police only recovered $1400; 2014 people got roaring drunk and were "run in" during the same period. About as many more got comfortably drunk.

The names of the firms that subscribed to Dr Irigoyen's album are published. Most of the first foreign houses are amongst them.

A Thirteen Club has been started at Montevideo, with President Santos as Chairman. Everything connected with the Club is to be thirteen, to such an extent that the members are bound to have 13 suits of clothes; 13 pair of boots, 13 hats etc. Wherever they make speeches at table they are to use only 13 words. The waiters are to be only 13 years of age. We wonder at President Santos having anything to do with such a pack of fools.

So Lanman and Kemp have started a perfume factory in this city, and employ 300 women and girls. This is most fragrant news. Another "industria del pais."

An old buffer in Calle Entre Rios thought he saw a ghost in his patio the other night, but it was only a Lothario who was in the act of eloping with the old gentlemen's daughter.

The Prensa's leader on the State Banks and scarcity of cash in their coffers was just the thing. But what chance is there of the Government paying up? Unless Pellegrini becomes President.

Eight hundred thousand dollars in new N. B. notes were let loose on the market on Saturday.

He Didn't Quite Catch On.—"Do you like Shakespeare?" murmured Katrina, fresh from the seminary, as she threw a soft, languishing glance of her blue eyes into Hans Schweitzer's ruddy face. "Yaw, fraulein, I like Shake's peer or any order peer better don never vos."

That report about Entre Rios having established a tax of elven cents on every arrobe of wool was all balderdash, due to the mistake of a convivial printer. One cent per arrobe is the tax, and 5 milecimos on hides. Dr. Laurencena, the Minister, tore out his abundant hair when he saw the mistake in the papers.

What supreme cheek! And yet the fellow must have a keen sense of humour Baron van Casteel, the swindler, who was accomodated with a 'falua de gala' by one of the steam agencies when he was skedaddling, has written to his victims stating that urgent private affairs called him away so suddenly that he had no time to leave a p.p.c. card on them! What a funny rascal.

Oh!!! The Republica, in its fashionable column, gives a rather unfashionable explanation of the perennial sending round of the hat for the poet Gervasio Mendez. Our colleague positively asserts that of all the money raised from time to time for him, by concerts, bazaars, and every conceivable device, not a copper has ever reached the poet's pocket. Somebody is rather bound to rise and explain.

There is most distressing news from Catamarca, where Governor Daza lately ordered two "musicos" and a policeman to get 150 lashes each. The policeman's offence was getting drunk; but what the musicians did we don't know. Very probably they all but drove H. E. mad with bad music. Whoever has heard a German band at an English watering place can readily conceive this. By latest accounts the Governor has commuted the sentences to imprisonment, with baccy, cards and mate "a discrecion."

Our esteemed colleague the Union is an excellent paper for tracking evildoers. Last week it tackled something very wrong on the provincial Education Board, and now it has got hold of a "ruidoso asunto" in the land line; 50 people swindled. This looks unpleasant.

Some one was speaking of the end of the world. "Do you think it will come soon?" asked eight-year-old Effie, eagerly. "No, I guess not," was the reply. "Oh! I hope it won't," said the wee girl; "it would be too mean if it did—before I got a chance to be married."

Mr. Woodgate is rousing up the San Lorenzo people to look sharp and have their lands expropriated for the extension of the B. Ayres and Rosario rail to Sunchales.

Whoever takes a little child into his love may have a very roomy heart, but that child will fill it all. The children that are in the world keep us from growing old and cold; they cling to our garments with there little hands and impede our progress to petrifaction; with their pleading eyes they win us back from cruel care; they never encumber us at all. A poor old couple with no one to love them is a most pitiful picture; but a hovel with a small face in it is robbed of its desolation his machine has been specially designed for the Colonies and other new countries, for cutting strong thistles, fer and light scrub on rough land, and has been most successful in Autralasia and South America. It has very high wheels and is of great strength combined with lightness in draught.

The cutting apparatus consists of 2 sets of knives, one set fixed to the Bar in place of the Fingers, and the other driven by the Crank plate and connecting Rod in the usual way.

The unanimous verdict of all who have worked this machine is that it is the "Most useful and economical implement on the estancia."

ON CHANGE

October 19th, 1885

Gold	45 o/o prem.
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas F	80⅝
Cedulas G	85½

In spite of the many circumstances that combine to favor a fall in the gold market, the premium this morning held its ground and showed a slight advance, compared with Saturday's closing rates. The great scarcity of gold is throttling the bearish speculation and, although the current of the market points to a steady decline, the fall in the premium cannot amount to much as long as the stock of specie continues in the present reduced state. The efflux of gold from this market for the last six weeks amounts to about one million sterling; such a heavy drain on our reduced stock of specie accounts for the stubbornness with which the premium falls, in spite of the smiling prospects of the loan, of the arrivals of wool in the produce markets, and of a steady and rising tendency in exchange rates. It would be rash to make any calculation of the amount of gold in the market and any figure published would be the result of questionable guess-work, but the fixed conviction of all is that the amount is very small, not to say insignificant

The exchange market is rising rapidly in view of the sudden withdraw al of takers. The scarcity of gold accounts for the disappearance of takers of gold exchange, and the steadily increasing arrivals of produce in the Once and Constitucion markets are rapidly advancing rates. There were drawers in sterling this morning at 47d, but no business was reported. Brokers think that the rate will top 48d next month.

The money market is losing some of its anomalous features. For the last six months we have been witnessing the strange phenomenon of restriction of discounts at the State Banks, in view of the impoverished state of their paper reserve, and of unprecedented abundance of money at all the private banks and on 'Change. The new issue of 12 millions, granted to the National Bank, removes the pressure in that quarter, and paper is now flowing freely from its vaults. The situation, in consequence, is easier than ever. There are also prospects of the Provincial Bank issuing four millions more; thus we may prepare to see paper at 5 and gold at 15 o/o.

The National Treasury has been making large disbursements for the last few days. The bills that accumulated, owing to the indisposition that prevented Dr. Pacheco attending the Government House, were numerous and large. The pressure is now over and money is coming out freely.

Speculators endeavored this morning to make much out of the rumored resignation of the Chief of Police, and such is the susceptibility of the market in political matters that the premium was affected to a certain extent by the bad effect produced by the news. Distrust is the bane of the market, and there is a settled conviction in the wide circle of commercial interests that affairs will touch bottom, or top, so far as the premium is concerned, next year, and that no reaction can be expected before the elections for President are over. This conviction is loading many into a species of liquidation to weather the storm.

The 'artistas' arrived by the Neva, were warmly welcomed in the market yesterday and to-day. They spread a gleam of sunshine in the dark haunts and sheds, stations and deposits. They all looked in such capital humour after the sea-voyage, that consignees began to gather fresh hopes that the vaunted depression of trade in France was all gammon. Their presence is the signal for renewed activity in produce: the best welcome was the large consignment of wool that arrived in the plazas this morning. The 'artistas' will not operate this season on the same heavy scale as the last, and the general opinion is that the export of wool of this clip to France will show a great falling-off.

Operations for cash round the ring embraced the small amount of $25,000 gold this morning; the market opened at 44 and advanced steadily to 45, closing rate. A small amount was also sold for Wednesday at 44½. Operations for the end of the month amounted to $285,000; rates opened at 45, fell to 42½, and closed at 44. About two hundred thousand were sold for the end of November at 42 to 42.80. Small amounts were sold at 41½ to 41.80 for December 20th, at 41½ to 42 for December 30th, and at 40⅝ for Feburary and March. Operations during official hours amounted to $646,000. The market to-day opened weak, fell slightly for the end of the month, but ruled hard subsequently and advanced rapidly to the closing rates, which closed between buyers and sellers. A difference of 1½ was paid between operations for cash and for the end of the month, a rather stiff interest for twelve days only. To judge by the current of the market and by the scarcity of gold, still larger differences will be paid as the end of the month approaches. The prospects of the speculation point to a steady fall next month, and this conviction is the basis of the heavy bearish speculation for that date. The bulls, however, hold the market for cash.

The week opens with a much firmer Cedula market, and the plethora of paper that is being issued will, no doubt, tend to improve quotations. About 10,000 A changed hands for cash this morning at 100 and 100½. Operations in Series F embraced 23,000 for cash at 80½ to 80⅝. Over 80,000 G were sold cash at 85½. Small amounts of G were sold for th 30th at 85½ also.

Takers of paper exchange have become much more numerous of late, in view of the scarcity of gold.

It may interest the few holders of Bonos Edificadores de La Plata to know that the interests and sinking-funds on their bonds are payable at present in La Plata and in the Mortgage Bank of this city. These bonds are those of a provincial loan of $2,100,000 m/n, launched to secure funds to enable employees in La Plata to build houses. The bulk of the loan was taken up by the Provincial Bank at 80 o/o, and a small amount only got into the hands of the public. The loan is a 5 o/o stock.

The R.M.S. Neva left yesterday with £90,000 in gold. This shipment was much larger than had been expected in the hall. The Neva, we may say, takes the last gold shipment of this year.

The whole market was talking of the interviews between Minister Pellegrini and the President of the Provincial Bank, and speculative fancy suffered a great strain in detecting the substance of these meetings and in launching on the gold market reports of a more or less plausible nature. Some brokers appeared to know so much about what was discussed between the Minister and Mr. Hueyo that it may interest both these gentlemen to hear what they report in this regard. Some knowing-ones state that the Provincial Bank will throw a million gold dollars at the ring; it is needless to state that the authors of this report are gold bears. Others assert that the Provincial Bank, in exchange for the bond and an issue of four million more notes, will enter into the loan negotiation with the Syndicate. This is a rather unexpected turn in the negotiation, but the power and influence of the Bank are so great both in this market and in London that its presence amongst the negotiators and collateral guarantees must be regarded as very considerable factors in the loan business. The opinion of the majority is that the Bank will limit its sphere of action to this market, by supplying the Government with exchange bills it may need up to the end of the year. The Bolsa atmosphere, however, is rife with rumors of all kinds.

The report that the well-known property at the corner of Rivadavia and Suipacha, where the Confiteria del Gas is situated, had failed to obtain a single bid at auction, has somewhat surprised the market, and rightly so, at a moment when all are staggered to see the great increase in the value of real estate. The upset price of the property, in question, was $500,000 m/n, and it was offered for sale by order of the Judge. But it appears that the house only could be sold, as there are no titles, at present known, on the land. The property belonged to a Spanish family, and since they left the country nobody knows if the land has titles or not. The late Mrs Garcia built the present fine house, and her death brings the property to the hammer under the present peculiar circumstances. It is stated that a well-known lawyer offers to settle the question about the titles for $70,000 m/n. If the property had valid titles it might be considered cheap at 200,000 m/n.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

The new wool is now begining to come to market. At the Once about 10,000 arrobes new wool in, and at the South market 2000 ar. The market is filled with buyers, but they hang back, and very few sales are effected. Messrs Duggan sold one lot 800 arrobes new wool at 85. This was the best sale of the day. Another lot defective 200 arrobes was sold at 56. The general run of wools offering at from 65 to 75. Messrs Unzue sold in the Once 400 arrobes of wool from Zarate at 74. It is remarkable to note that of the 10,000 arrobes of wool that arrived in the Once this morning, 7000 remained unsold.

In the South plaza wools from Pillahuinco, Chascomus and Bahia Blanca were offered for sale, but no purchase transpired.

The Basualdo wool from Maipu, the sale of which at $100 m/n per arrobe we announced a month ago, was unloaded this afternoon in the shed of the Southern station.

The arrivals of skins at both plazas are simply astounding and reveal the great losses of sheep during the winter. The magnificent deposits of the Southern Railway are filled above and below with sheepskins. Such piles of skins were never before seen in the market. Some skins from the Tatay estancia sold this morning at the splendid figure of 26½ rls. Some new wool in from there also, but not sold.

We call the attention of barraqueros and capitalists to the two barracas which will be sold at auction by Messrs Tallaferro & Sanchez on next Sunday. They are both in the immediate neighbourhood of the Plaza Once and famous for the fortunes which the late Cruz Jaspers and others made in them. The valuation and details will be found in our advertisement column, and we believe few more desirable investments than these fine barracas are to be had in this market, only one square from the Once de Setiembre market, and well known to every wool buyer that comes to the Plate. Parties looking for barracas may consider themselves in luck to secure such splendid properties.

Amongst the new arrivals by the Niger, we note Lix Klett, Maquinay, Funck, De Bruyn, Duquenois, Delpech, and others who were warmly welcomed in the markets.

The gold business was at a stand still during afterhours. The market closed with sellers at 45 for cash, 44 for the 30th and 43 for November.

At foot we publish the balance-sheet of the National Bank for last month.

Our colleague La Revista Financiera appears this week with two capital articles on the Forced Currency Law and the baneful effects its ambiguous wording will entail abroad, where it will be known as the "law of discredit".

We hear that Mr. Guerrico, the present acting-manager, will succeed to the post of the late Mr. C. Diehl. Mr. Guerrico, during his temporary management, has shown his capacity to fill the post which we hope will be intrusted to him.

The following remarks of the London Economist on the chaotic condition of French finances will be read with interest, especially as the principal observations may be applied word for word to the finances of this country; the figures, at foot, show the immense burden of the French debt and the great resources of the nation that can bear such obligations:—

"With what enormous strides the indebtedness of the country has advanced a few figures will suffice to show. When the second Empire came to an end the total of the consolidated debt amounted to £306,000,000. In 1873 this total had been increased to £789,000,000, the enormous increase being accounted for by the expenditure incurred during the war, the payment of the £20,000,000 indemnity to Germany, the outlay upon the reconstitution of the army and the fortresses, and the settlement of a multitude of miscellaneous claims to which the war gave rise. These liabilities having all been met, the book of the funded debt was declared to be closed, and no addition to its amount has since been made. That, however, does not mean that the borrowings of the Government have been brought to an end. On the contrary, the apparent ease with which the burden of the new debt was borne by the country appears to have imbued its successive Governments with the idea that its riches were inexhaustible. In other directions, also, new liabilities were incurred. From the outset it was intended that much of this fresh expenditure should be met out of borrowed money. It was expected, however, that a considerable portion of it would be defrayed out of the current revenue, and if the outlay had been kept within moderate limits this expectation would have been realised, for the revenue now is about 20 millions greater than it was ten years ago. But greatly as the income has increased, the expenditure has grown still more rapidly, and latterly each year has closed with a more or less heavy deficit, which has gone to swell the amount of the unfunded debt. At the end of 1884 it was estimated that the total debt had by these means been increased to nearly £1,200,000,000, made up thus:—

Consolidated debt	£789,000,000
Redeemable and floating debt	411,000,000
	£1,200,000,000

And since then the floating liabilities have been largely increased. What the exact amount of the growth has been it is impossible to say, owing to the confusion of accounts, to which M. Leroy-Beaulieu has borne such emphatic testimony; but taking into account the uncovered expenditure upon the Tonquin expedition, and the transfer to the floating debt account of the liability of the State on its railway guarantees, the augmentation must have been something very considerable."

All the vituperation raised by the announced increase of taxation on wool and sheepskins in the Province of Entre Rios turns out to be pure moonshine, as neither the Government nor the Legislature has thought of levying "11 cents per kilo of wool and 5 cents per kilo of sheepskins". The tax which has given rise to such misinterpretation only amounts to one centavo per kilo of wool and 5 milesimos per kilo of sheepskins in moneda nacional.

DONTINA.

How vain the loving darts that fly
From e'en the most bewitching eye.
Unless the teeth are pure and bright,
And ever keep a snowy white.
If you would save your teeth from harm
In Dontina you'll find the charm.

Diamonds and Pearls.

Eyes bright as diamonds should be supplemented by teeth white as pearls, and this latter element of beauty can be secured by using Dontina.
